About AIWF

Ansar ul ilm foundation (AIWF) is non government, non commercial charity organization laid down in December 2011 with an objective of helping poor living in the vicinity. Usually help is considered one time activity with narrow scope of results. The founder members of AIF decided to go beyond help i.e. to uplift the deprived till their self sustaining . Providing free education of equivalent standards to their children with grooming, based on Islamic ideology was the idea conceived and opted then unanimously by the founder members of AIWF for execution. Alhamdulillah the intention of serving humanity with sincerity paid a lot to procure early success. Now the three founder members are strengthened with several devoted members contributing their valued services with sincerity. And recently AIWF got approved from ministry of population welfare government of Pakistan. AIF school was founded 5 years ago under the umbrella of AIWF to meet our target. AIF School is providing 100% free education with the standard prevailing in medium to high class schools. The grooming of the students is ensured through Islamic ideology, modern techniques and by engaging in extra curriculum activities. Our success is quite obvious today Alhamdulillah. All designators and members are working with an exclusive motif of service with sincerity for raza-e-elahi only, and are not taking and financial advantage or social projection out of this project . We look forward to you as well to join hands in this charity with whatsoever source you have be it financial, physical or moral.
